Peru Exchange Student Visits Farm Bureau Family

Miss Maria Rosario Stamenovic Robles, better known as "Charo", exchange student from Lima, Peru and Miss Cathy Bishop of Lynchburg were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Glover, Jr. and family for the week end on April 30.

Saturday was spent in showing Charo the farm and farm-related activities, Holiday Lake, the 4-H Club Camp and a walk along the nature trail to the dam of Holiday Lake. Saturday evening the Farm Bureau Executive Board members and families had a covered dish supper at Hixburg. Charo brought along her costumes & did several of the dances native to her country for special occasions. The Women's Committee presented "Charo" a necklace with Appomattox County Farm Bureau engraved on it as a remembrance of the night.

Sunday was spent in attending church services, horseback riding and visiting in Buckingham County.

Charo came to the United States in August 1976. When she arrived she could only say, "Hello. My name is Charo, Goodbye" in the English language. She has now a very comprehensive English vocabulary.

Charo will graduate from E. C. Glass this June 14 and will leave soon after to return to Lima, Peru.

This was an interesting, enjoyable and informative week end for all involved.
